

Office 365 Microsoft Word: Inbuilt Assistive Technology

Microsoft Word has inbuilt features that provide a welcome support for SpLD students.

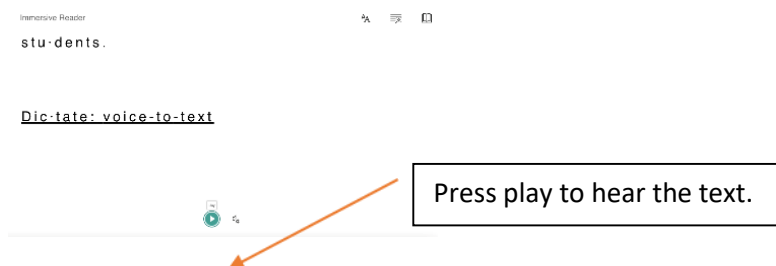

Dictate: voice-to-text

Immersive Reader

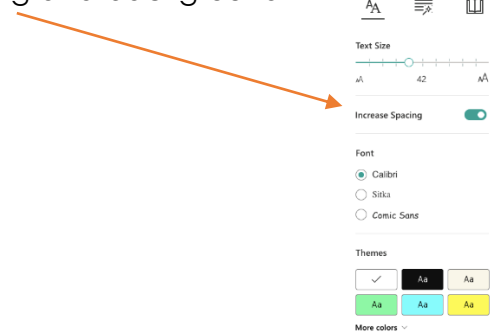

This opens a new window

Immersive Reader: Text Preferences

Useful features include changing the letter spacing and background

Immersive Reader: Grammar Options

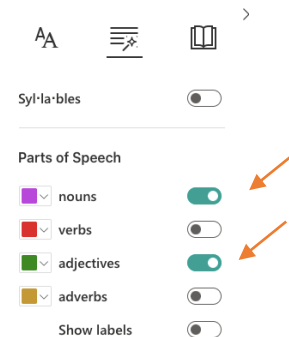

Autumn reminds me of golden leaves crunching as I walk down the rambling garden path.

Parts of Speech

This feature supports learners with identifying parts of speech.

This example highlights nouns and adjectives.

Autumn reminds me of golden leaves crunching as I walk down the rambling garden path.

show labels marks the parts of speech.

This example, highlights and labels verbs.

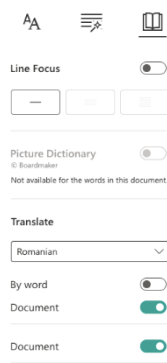

Microsoft Word ^{v.}has inbuilt features that ^{v.}provide a welcome support for SpLD students.

Show syllables splits words

This supports reading and

The large hippopotamus
the glorious mud.

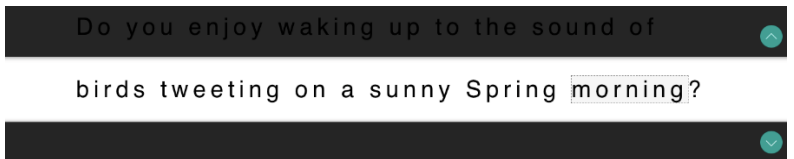

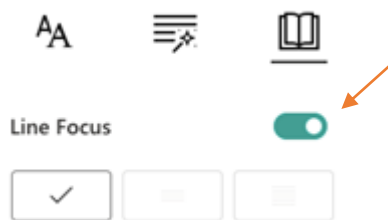

into syllables.
spelling.

The large hip·po·pot·a·mus bathed in the glo·ri·ous mud.

Immersive Reader: Reading Preferences

Line focus shows only a limited number of lines

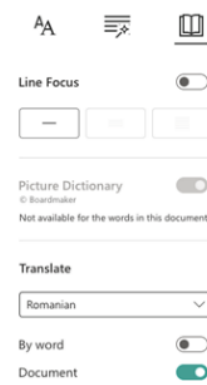

Translate allows translation of single words when clicked.

This example shows the Slovak translation by word.

or can translate the document.

This example shows the document translated into Romanian.

er 2021

Picture dictionary used for single words

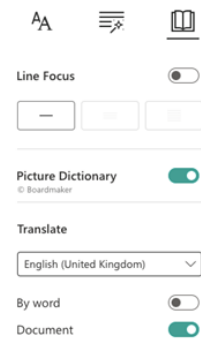

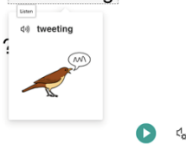

Do you enjoy waking up to the sound of birds tweeting on a sunny Spring morning?

Picture dictionary and document

Clicking on any word shows a picture (if available).

Do you enjoy waking up to the sound of birds tweeting on a sunny Spring morning?

This document gives a short guide to the inbuilt features of word making this an inclusive resource for all children.

Free for eligible schools

Use the link below to check if your school has free access to Office 365 Education.

<https://www.microsoft.com/en-gb/education/products/office>