

Thinking about FE (Further Education)

If you are thinking about what you want to do next and where to go to continue your education, then you may have lots of questions. This is ok. You may find it helpful to think about the questions you have and write them down so that you can remember them.

- You will be able to find out some of the answers on the website of the FE colleges.
- Your teachers at school or your careers advisors may know some of the answers.
- Your parents may know some of the answers.
- Some of the questions may get answered if you go to an Open Evening at a College – there are often group talks or tours.
- Some of the questions you may need to ask individually during your visit or via an email before/after the event.

Here are some questions that you might have. You may have lots of your own questions too – that's ok.

Write them down here:

The Course

Some questions you may want to ask:

- What grades do I need to get onto the course? Is there anything else I need?
- Is the course marked on exams, coursework or a mixture?
- Do I get to choose which modules I take?
- How many hours of lesson would I have each week?
- Will the subjects I choose help me to do what I want to do afterwards?
