Thinking about University

If you are thinking about going to university, then you may have lots of questions. This is ok. You may find it helpful to think about the questions you have and write them down so that you can remember them.

- You will be able to find out some of the answers on the website of each university.
- Your teachers at College or Sixth Form may know some of the answers.
- Your parents may know some of the answers.
- Some of the questions may get answered if you go to an Open Day at a University – there are often group talks or tours.
- Some of the questions you may need to ask individually when you visit the university or via an email before/after the event.

Here are some questions that you might have. You may have other questions too – that's ok.

Write them down here:

The University
Some questions you may want to ask: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Are all the university buildings together (campus), or are they spread out over a larger area?• Where is the university in relation to the nearest town/city?• Are there any shops nearby?• Is there a train station/bus station nearby?• What is there to do in the local area?
