

Working Together - thresholds, consent and the Front Door

A half day multi-agency session

Target Audience

Multi-agency practitioners and front line managers working across the partnership

Purpose of the session

Consistent understanding and application of the continuum of need and thresholds.

Develop a shared understanding of the progress made around Early Help and Prevention and the integrated Front Door

What will the session cover?

- Revisit the continuum of needs and response to remind frontline staff and managers of Bradford's thresholds document and application of this
- Provide examples of how to support children, young people and families at each level of need
- Facilitate multi-agency discussions on working with complex and challenging young people and families
- Update attendees on the current early help and prevention services
- Revisit the multi-agency information sharing agreement and issues of consent to ensure there is a shared understanding of when consent is required
- Promote feedback from front line practitioners and managers about what is working well
- Provide an overview on the work of the integrated front door and MASH post inspection

When will the course be held?

There will be 4 sessions to choose from being held over two days. You will be able to select to attend 09.30–12.30 or 13.30–16.30 from the following dates:
