

Achieving Excellence in English

Planning a teaching sequence in Key Stage 2.

A comprehensive CPD programme delivered in partnership with Philip Webb Literacy.

 Philip Webb | Literacy

OUTCOMES:

Participants will be able to plan, teach and assess an effective 'reading to writing' teaching sequence using high quality texts.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Early Career Teachers, NQTs, QQTs
Suitable for teachers who are new to KS2

Colleagues attending the course will receive a free set of reading comprehension fans plus a free children's book and access to downloadable high quality resources.

COURSE CONTENT

14

October
2016

Day 1:

An introduction to a five phase teaching sequence with quality texts at the heart. The training will be led by Philip Webb, supported by a Specialist Leader in Education (SLE)/Leader of Excellent Practice (LEP). It will cover engaging shared reading activities. It will show, in context, how texts can be used to support the teaching of text structure; punctuation and grammar. It will look at the planning, drafting, editing and publishing of writing.

Onsite visit to delegate's school

Day 2 (half day):

Delegates will receive support in their own school from an SLE/LEP who will work with them in the planning and delivery of a unit of work.

26

May 2017

Day 3:

Led by Philip Webb and teachers this session will focus on updates on curriculum policy, action planning and embedding grammar in the curriculum.

TIMES & LOCATION

9.00 until 15.30

The Innovation Centre
The Digital Exchange,
34 Peckover St, Bradford BD1 5BD
Tel: 01274 434818

COURSE FEES

£300

Delegates must attend both sessions.

REGISTER FOR COURSE

<https://goo.gl/vhFMme>

CONTACT Zarqa Akhtar
Tel: 01274 494898

Email: zarqa.akhtar@siedmundsnsc.com