

THE TALKING SCHOOL CONFERENCE 2016

Talk for Reading Across the Curriculum

Date: 21 June 2016

Venue: The Midland Hotel,
Bradford

Pie Corbett the well-known educationalist, trainer, storyteller, poet, author and creator of Talk for Writing will be back with us to share some of his latest work on Talk for Reading.

Keynotes from:

Lyn Dawes a trainer, lecturer, author and a national expert in Talk for Learning provides inspirational keynotes and workshops for education professionals throughout the UK. Her most recent books are Talking Points – discussion activities in the primary classroom, Talking Points for Shakespeare Plays and Jumpstart: Talk for Learning.

Delegates will have the opportunity to attend two workshops throughout the conference with a choice from the following:

Workshops

The Power of Words: Vocabulary games for non-fiction – Green Lane Primary (supported by members of the Language for Learning Steering Group)

Reading Scientifically: Using stories for science – Claire Holt

Talk for Reading: Non-fiction in the Early Years and KS1 – Jane Dallas and Carol Satterthwaite

T4M2: Talk for Maths 2 – Sam Adams

Talk for Non-fiction: developing reading and provision in the early years – Eastwood Primary School and members of the Language for Learning Steering Group

Talk for Reading: Non-fiction in KS2 and KS3 – Claire Warner

Cost: £125 (first delegate) £115 (subsequent delegates from same setting)

Early bird discount (if booked before 31 May 2016): £110 per person

Book online at: www.language4learning.org