

UNIVERSITY of BRADFORD
.....
Faculty of Social Sciences

Elections and Democracy!

With the general elections coming up we are delighted to announce that we are hosting a polling station here at the University. In the lead up to this, we are holding various public discussions and seminars with our academics. We will also be holding a mini conference event specifically for students and teachers (please see schedule on the next page).

Is voting the best way to make a decision?
Alternative forms of participation

Red? Blue? Green? or Orange? Understanding the differences between the political parties (student-led)

Should the UK stay in or leave the European Union?

Please see the next page for the schedule of the day we have for both students and teachers.

22

APRIL 2015

10am-2pm

For further information please contact:

schoolsandcolleges
@bradford.ac.uk

01274 234611

'Elections and Democracy!' Schedule

Schedule for the Mini-Conference for Schools and Colleges
'Elections and Democracy'

Schedule for Students	Schedule for Teachers
10.00 - 11.00am Opening Remarks: Why Vote?
11.00 - 12.00pm Break Out Interactive Session with Students from Peace Studies (themed activities around Democracy and Elections)	11.00 - 12.00pm How to enhance the Citizenship curriculum... (discussion with academics)
12.00 - 12.45pm Lunch
12.45 - 2.00pm 3 Parallel Sessions: 1. Is voting the best way to make decisions? Alternative forms of participation 2. Should the UK stay in or get out of the European Union? 3. Red? Blue? Green? or Orange? Understanding the differences between the political parties (student-led)	12.45 - 2.00pm Extended Project Qualification (EPQ) in Politics: Exploring Peace, Conflict and Current Affairs
2.15pm - 4pm (can be booked separately from the rest of the day) For Teachers How to teach beyond the main stream. Discussing radical political alternatives in the classrooms?	