Furaha Mussanzi

Furaha is Congolese-British singer, song-writer and storyteller who is passionate about her faith, social justice and using creative means to promote peace. Having grown up in the war-torn Democratic Republic of Congo, she came to Bradford 20 years ago as a refugee and went on to get a Master's degree in African Peace and Conflict studies. She is passionate about education and sharing her story with young people.

Furaha offers assemblies and workshops to students from KS1 to KS4. If you would like her to visit your school, please email us.

The 'Sanctuary Seekers of Bradford' is a 30-minute documentary that follows the lives of three Bradford residents from different walks of life as they each show practical care and kindness and compassion to refugees and asylum seekers living in the city.

In collaboration with the filmmaker, Bradford Schools of Sanctuary have developed teaching resources to accompany this documentary for use with KS3 and KS4. We are offering access to these resources plus, if requested, a visit from the film director and someone with lived experience to speak to students.
