An Introduction to Mental Wellbeing Support in Bradford District and Craven

Mental health problems are now thought to affect around one in six children and young people (NHS Digital, 2020).

They include depression, anxiety, self-harm and eating disorders and can often be a direct response to things that have or are happening in their lives. Often children and young people can be supported by their parents, carers, extended families, friends and through support available within schools. However, sometimes children and young people may benefit from additional support and advice around their mental health and emotional wellbeing.

This booklet is intended to provide a summary of the different types of mental wellbeing support for children and young people which are available in Bradford District and Craven. Descriptions of each service, who they can support and how you can contact them have been included to support children, young people, parents, carers and professionals to make an informed decision about what support may be useful.

The THRIVE Framework

The THRIVE framework is an integrated, person centred and needs led approach to supporting mental health and emotional wellbeing for children, young people and their families.

The THRIVE Framework thinks about the mental health and wellbeing needs of children, young people and families through five different needs based groupings: Thriving Getting Advice and Signposting, Getting Help, Getting More Help and Getting Risk Support. It is hoped that considering services across the Thrive Framework can enable children and young people to access the most appropriate service to meet their needs.

For more information on the Thrive Framework please visit the Anna Freud website:

The THRIVE Framework

In Bradford District and Craven we are moving towards considering each of our mental health and wellbeing services within the Thrive Framework. Therefore the information contained within this booklet is structured around each of the five needs based groupings as illustrated in the model below.

Mental Health Champions in Schools Project

Mental Health Champions in Schools Project provides information and guidance to a member of school staff to enable them and the wider school workforce to support children and young people with mild to moderate mental health or emotional wellbeing difficulties in the school environment.

Our aim is for every school in Bradford to sign up to the Mental Health Champions project, which communicates key information regarding offers of support, advice and news from health care providers, Public Health services and the voluntary sectors to schools and colleges in the district.

Mental Health Champions Plus can access further training and guidance via the Mental Health Champions Plus offer – an enhanced level of support and training. This service also holds online workshops for parents/carers.

Schools and parents/carers can find out more information by contacting the email provided on the following page.

Getting More Help

Those who need more extensive and specialised goals based help

This section details services that can provide specialist support based on a child, young person's or family's needs, mental health concern or condition. Generally these services aim to provide support to those who are experiencing significant difficulties and presenting with severe or complex needs.

Early Intervention in Psychosis Team (CAMHS)

The CAMHS Early Intervention in Psychosis team, supports young people aged 14-18 years-old, who are experiencing a first episode of psychosis. Young people may experience a number of symptoms of psychosis including seeing and hearing things others cannot and show a reduction in functioning (e.g. school work, socialising etc). The service offers support to carers and families of those young people with a diagnosis of psychosis. It also provides young people's assessment and treatment, care coordination, recovery coordination, individual therapy and family work. Families and health professionals can ring CAMHS Duty Team and ask for advice on referral or speak to their GP for referral.

Referrals are welcomed from professionals working with the child or young person. This includes GPs, Teachers, Social Workers and School Nurses.

Getting Risk Support

Those who have not benefitted from or are unable to use help, but are of such a risk that they are still in contact with services

This section details services that can respond to children and young people who may be experiencing a mental health crisis. This could be where there are urgent and significant concerns regarding a child or young person's mental wellbeing, including those who may present a risk to themselves or to others.

CAMHS Crisis Team

The CAMHS crisis service bridges the gap between Specialist CAMHS and inpatient services by providing support to young people experiencing mental health crises. This includes young people who:

- are at risk of immediate and significant self-harm
- are being considered for admission to a mental health inpatient unit
- are in acute psychological or emotional distress that is preventing them from going about their daily activities.

The Crisis Team is developing an intensive home treatment service for young people who need short term more intensive support in the community. Referrals come from CAMHS internally, A&E and Paediatric Wards.

First Response

The First Response crisis service offers support 24 hours a day, seven days a week to people of all ages living in Bradford District and Craven experiencing a mental health crisis.

Where possible the person who is experiencing the crisis should contact First Response, but we understand that this is not always possible and accept calls from others, concerned about the person's well-being. Once you call First Response a telecoach will answer and quickly assess your needs. They are experienced to talk to people in distress and provide guidance to help you manage the situation and your feelings.

Safe Spaces Overnight Stay

Safe Spaces overnight service is based in the Bradford area and operates from 6.00pm – 10:00am on a Monday and Tuesday.

Safe Spaces overnight stay is a confidential, non-clinical, homely environment where children and young people (aged 7 up until their 18th birthday) can seek one-to-one support when they are experiencing emotional distress. Support stays at the overnight service are focused on de-escalating a mental health crisis and providing emotional support where needed.

Our Crisis Support Workers will also encourage onward referrals to other services if the young person feels they need more ongoing support.

Referrals can be made via First Response on 0800 952 1181 or via Guideline on 08001 884 884. Alternatively any CAMHS worker can also refer a young person in.
