

Aspire to Achieve Conference

Following on from the success of FFT's first national education conferences for secondary schools in 2014, we are delighted to announce Aspire to Achieve 2.

Tuesday 10 November, 2015: Congress Centre, London

Thursday 12 November, 2015: ICC, Birmingham

The conference will be an opportunity to delve deeper into the new FFT Aspire system for schools, including the new student explorer, collaborate and target setting modules.

You will also hear best practice from schools across England, plus discover the latest cutting edge but practical research from Education Datalab, our new centre of excellence for quantitative research in education.

£199
+ VAT for one delegate or £299
+ VAT
for two*

Suitable for secondary school colleagues, in particular headteachers and senior leaders, subject and department heads, data managers and governors.

*If two attend from the same school.
