

Exam Wrapper Discussion + Reflection Prompts

Directions: Ask students to spend a few minutes before and after a formative assessment reflecting on their preparation, strengths, limitations, areas of growth, and insights into abilities. Invite them to capture their reflections in writing, a drawing, a concept map, or a video recording.

Before the Formative Assessment

- How prepared do you feel to take this formative assessment?
- What are the learning experiences we have had in this class that relate to the focus of this assessment?
- Before sharing what you know, what areas are you confident in?
- Before you share what you know, what specific concepts or skills are you unsure of?
- What did you do to prepare for this assessment? How helpful were these strategies?
- What aspects of this topic are unclear or confusing as you approach this assessment?

After the Formative Assessment

- If you struggled to share what you have learned, what was the main reason why?
- How will the results of this formative assessment impact how you prepare for the summative assessment?
- What questions do you still have after reviewing the results of this formative assessment?
- Did anything surprise you as you reviewed your results?
- Did you notice growth or improvement in any areas?
- What are your next steps in terms of acting on the results of this formative assessment?

Tucker (2024).