Forecast methodology for North East 2

The need for primary school places depends on the local child population. Key factors in the forecast are the number of births and children registered with the Health Authority in an area, migration in and around the District and movement of families into new housing developments.

The take up rate of 95% is applied to the health data and the table below shows the calculated number of Reception places required for North East 2 residents in the coming years.

Year of reception intake	2023	2024	2025	2026	2027
Calculated places required	368	338	334	360	367

In addition to these figures, forecasts incorporate trends for children attending schools outside of their local planning area. For North East 2, the highest number of children coming in are from North East 1 and North East 3; the highest number attending elsewhere go to schools in North East 1 as well. Historically, children attending schools here from outside of the District have not been a factor in the forecast for this area and small numbers of children have gone to schools in neighbouring Local Authorities.

Forecasts and historic accuracy for North East 2

The tables below contain forecast data submitted to the DfE as part of the annual School Capacity (SCAP) return. The grey column shows the difference between last year's forecast and the actual number of pupils on roll at the schools at the January school census.

% Difference	0.0%	-	-	-	-	-

Note that a PAN reduction alone does not change the net capacity of the school. Total Capacity, as calculated above, factors in PAN but is predominantly concerned with the capacity of the buildings; net capacity can therefore only be adjusted as a result of significant changes to the building and / or use of space. The total capacity here is therefore the maximum number of potential school places that can be physically accommodated; however, the maximum number of pupils that can be accommodated in any year will be dependent on factors such as the PAN, the class organisation and the number of teaching staff at the school.

Planned/possible actions

The Local Authority will continue to monitor the number of children and parental preference in this planning area whilst working collaboratively with schools and trusts and providing the required information to assist the decision-making process. Large scale housing developments are at various stages of application or construction in this planning areas as well as neighbouring areas; the additional children from these developments are included in the overall forecast figures, however, it is much more difficult to predict their effect on the popularity of the local schools.

Whilst surplus places are forecast for this planning area, this is largely due to the area being a net exporter of children to other planning areas. The Health data for this area is more closely aligned with the combined PAN of the schools here. To protect against an increase in local children requesting places in their 'home' planning area, there are currently no plans to address the surplus here for 2025.
