

Modern
Slavery
Victim's
Voices
Exhibition

Come along to find out more about modern slavery in West Yorkshire. The exhibition will feature artwork, videos and case studies about:

- What modern slavery and human trafficking looks like in your community
- How victims are impacted by modern slavery and human trafficking
- How agencies across West Yorkshire are working together to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking
- What you can do to stop modern slavery and human trafficking impacting people in your community

The exhibition will be displayed at various locations across West Yorkshire between 16th October and 19th November.
