

One-day conference organised by the Yorkshire and Humber Region of the National Education Union and the Carnegie School of Education

Celebrating education yorkshire

Saturday 16th November 2019
9.30am – 4pm at Cloth Hall Court
Quebec Street, Leeds LS1 2HA

An event to celebrate the wonderful variety of pedagogies, examining teaching and learning across maths, English, early years, primary, approaches to the curriculum and more.

Speakers so far confirmed:

- Tim Taylor
- Dr Rachel Lofthouse
- Gulwali Passarlay
- Alan Gibbons
- Louise Regan
- Simon Smith

Workshops confirmed so far:

- Mantle of the Expert
- Assessing Maths through observation
- Mixed attainment Maths (KS3/4)
- Picture Books for all ages
- How to hear the voices of child refugees
- Philosophy for children
- CPD through coaching, why it works
- Behaviour and trauma – informed practice
- Plastics – enemy or friend?
- How to make your school healthy and green?

book your tickets online:

<https://celebrating-education-yorkshire19.eventbrite.co.uk>

students: £5 / NEU members: £10 / non-members: £20

or contact:

Tel: 07800 785702
or email: sally.kincaid@neu.org.uk