

Simmy Sekhon

Managing Director of The Sekhon Group Property Development

Simmy Sekhon is a dynamic lawyer turned property entrepreneur who initially started as a sole practitioner solicitor trading as Sekhon Firth Solicitors and within 5 years grew the practice to some 140 staff. Simmy sold the practice in 2010 to concentrate on Commercial Property Development and has been growing the portfolio extensively. Simmy is currently converting the former Green Flag Head Office buildings in Pudsey to 140 Apartments of which the show apartments are scheduled to be ready by 30th September 2017.

Simmy is also converting Pennine House (which formerly housed Pennine radio and Hammond Suddards Solicitors) opposite the Broadway Shopping centre into 110 Apartments amongst other developments in Bradford.

Simmy is passionate about Bradford and is keen to be involved in mentoring budding entrepreneurs of the future.
