

INVITATION

The Launch Of Our Campaign “Count Me In”

One Britain One Nation OBON in partnership with Bradford College is launching the second phase of the “Count Me In” campaign which will create a legacy for the outburst of national pride. <http://onebritainonenation.com/>

This campaign will constitute a call to action, which is intended to reach all our schools with a focus on creating a sense of national unity and pride. Its essence is that of strengthening our national identity and forging a sense of togetherness so that every child will be inspired to love their nation.

OBON is working with schools from across the country and within the National Curriculum in order to promote the Fundamental British Values.

The Launch Event is to be Hosted by The Lord Mayor of Bradford.

Join us at 10.30am on Friday 24th of March 2017 at:
