Why attend?

This face-to-face CPD training day will spotlight the promotion of mental health and wellbeing, reflecting Bradford's district-wide priority for children and young people, as well as its increased emphasis within updated statutory guidance.

Participants will:

- ✓ Strengthen their PSHE and RSHE leadership skills
- ✓ Explore effective approaches to promoting mental wellbeing
- ✓ Network with PSHE leads from across the Bradford district
- ✓ Access practical resources, planning tools and guidance
- ✓ Take away strategies to enhance and improve PSHE/RSHE provision in their school

Who should attend?

- PHSE leads in schools
- May also suit mental health leads wanting to learn how PSHE can support mental wellbeing

About the PSHE Association

The national body for PSHE education. As a membership association and charity, it supports a network of over 50,000 teachers and schools to deliver high-quality PSHE education.

Their mission is to raise the status, quality and impact of PSHE education so that all children and young people benefit. When taught well, evidence shows that PSHE education can improve pupil wellbeing and support better educational attainment.
