

Remembering Srebrenica Memorial Service

Tuesday 11 July 2017 14:30 - 15:00

1 Stott Hill, Bradford BD1 4EH

Bradford Cathedral welcomes you to join them to commemorate the victims and honour the survivors of Srebrenica

Everyone deplores the terrorist attacks that have taken place in London and Manchester. People from all faiths come together to show solidarity against such atrocities and support for victims and their families.

On 11 July 1995, 8372 Muslim men and boys were killed in Srebrenica – not in a terrorist attack but in a deliberate act of genocide against the Bosnian Muslim community.

We invite you to join civic and religious leaders and representatives in a act of commemoration and commitment to a future of peace and understanding.
