

Resource

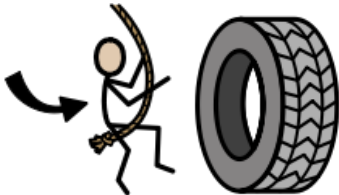

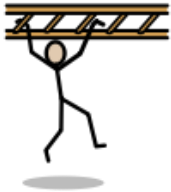

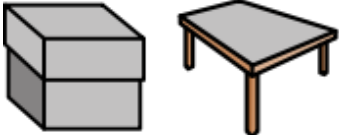

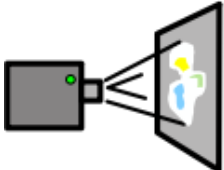

0 – 25 Specialist Teaching And Support Service

Resources to support an orientation schema.

Resources to facilitate learning opportunities to orientate.

	Binoculars to view things from a distance.
	Mirrors to view things with at different angle.
	Creating spy holes for children to look through.
	Magnifying lenses and cameras to view things more closely.
	Climbing frames for children to see things from different heights.

	Tyre swings.
	Low bars for children to swing and hang from.
	Ramps and resources to make their own.
	Rope ladders.
	Mirror tables, boxes, dividers for children to explore objects from different angles.
	Tunnels.
	Overhead projectors with objects to put on top e.g coloured sensory blocks.

Things to note:

This resource sheet is part of the Schemas - Orientation Tool Kit.

- Help Sheet – How to support an orientation schema.
- Resource – Resource to support an orientation schema.