

S.T.A.R. Analysis – in depth: What does the person gain or avoid?

SECTION B A S.T.A.R. Analysis of Problematic Behaviour – the Formulation
Definition of Behaviour	Appears to achieve the following results	Appears to be set off by the following triggers	Seems to occur in the context of the following environmental setting conditions	Appears to be related to the following personal setting conditions	Appears to be associated with a deficit in the following skills area
Needs List to address the deficits
Positive Attributes that will support the person to attain the skills
What strategies will help develop new skills to replace former means of gaining results?					